THE THEATRE

The Theatre is defined as being any place where events occur. These events can consist of plays, operas, and motion pictures. In each of these, there are people who portray different roles. Every person has their own theatre. Each person can determine what their role will be. In every role, there is a part of the actor or actress, which is individual to that part. These individuals are responsible for making it possible for each actor or actress to work together to achieve the same goal.

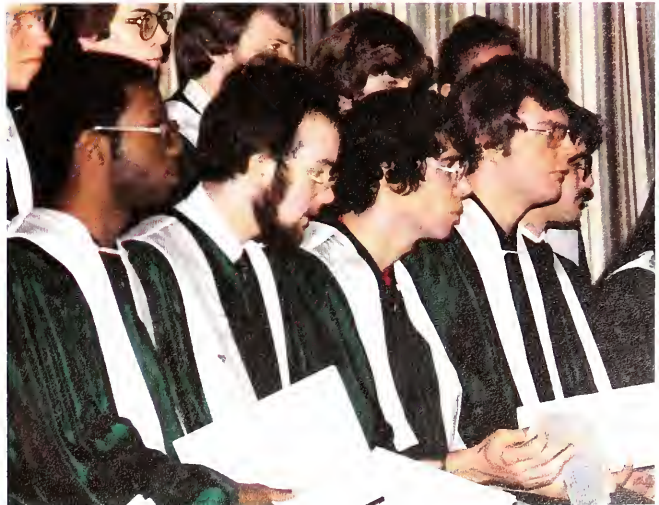

PERFORMER

Everyone has a role that they portray, whether it be student, faculty, or administrator. There are many roles that we are born into; such as sex, age, and nationality. There are also roles that we strive to achieve; such as being a student and the type of career you choose. At times the roles we perform complement each other; while at other times they seem to be in conflict. Each individual has to learn to work within their different roles to find a workable balance between each of their roles.

SPECTATOR

Although the role of a spectator seems to be an easy one to fulfill, it is still very important. Spectators give what, at times, is hardest to receive — encouragement and support. Even though spectators are associated mainly with sports, they also support groups and individuals. Spectators can give support to those groups that are developing. Spectators are the driving force that keeps us going and striving for the best that we can be.

ATHLETE

The athlete's role as related to a group is one of a shorter period of time. The athlete's influence on the game begins as each game begins. What occurs in past games does not affect the outcome of the future games. Although the influence on the individual games is short run, the training for the games is long term. Dedicated athletes spend many hours a week practicing their sports and staying in shape. The role of an athlete tends to be strenuous and very admirable.

FRIEND

A friend is the most important supporting actor or actress a person can have. With friends, people do what they feel like doing, when they feel like doing it. They know that there are a lot of ways of satisfying one another and that what is important are the feelings, not the ritual. Having friends can make life easier, but being a friend can make life more enjoyable. When a person has a true friend, they learn to appreciate other people but also to better understand themselves.

BE YOURSELF

The most important and original role any person portrays is that of themselves. It is a unique role and one which is easy to portray, but very difficult to develop. For many people it takes years to finally become the type of person that they truly desire to be. No one can tell you what you should be like. It is up to each individual to decide what characteristics they think are admirable and develop these into their own personality.

Senior Class Officers

Standing: Jason Yamamoto, President. Sitting: Lisa Sterrett, Secretary; Ken Shedleski, Vice-President; Mark Prego, Treasurer; Tina Stumbo, Secretary.

As the Class of 1983 graduates from Y.C.P., they will be progressing from one type of role to a lifestyle that is more demanding. They will no longer be students. They will be nurses, recreation therapists, managers, accountants, artists, psychologists, teachers, or a number of other occupations. They will learn that they have new responsibilities, new tasks, and new skills to develop. They will not be able to "blow off" work as they could their classes. They will find that they cannot "B.S." a business report, results of an experiment, or diagnosis as they could their assignments. Their bosses will be less likely to accept excuses. They will learn to accept the added responsibilities of being on the job. They will look for challenges and prosper from experience.

The Horizon would like to wish the class of '83 the best of luck in their future endeavors.

FALL CONCERTS

Many students had the opportunity during the fall semester to attend concerts sponsored by the College. There are several concerts held during the day in the Pub. Some of these include local bands such as "One Hand Clap", Jay Smar, and John Reeve. A candlelight concert series consisted of Dylana Jenson, Sharon Anstine, William Ghezzi, and the Waverly Consort. The college also sponsored two headlining concerts. Doc Severinson demonstrated his terrific trumpet talents one evening during Parents' Weekend. Juice Newton also appeared in the Wolf Gymnasium to entertain the students and area residents.

SPRING CONCERTS

This semester the students were treated to many concerts. On February 22, "America" appeared at the Wolf Gymnasium to a sell out crowd. Dewey Bunnell and Gerry Beckley performed a variety of their old and new songs, such as "Ventura Highway," "Horse With No Name," and "Magic." The rock group "Kix" performed in the Gym on March 18. "Growing Up Different" performed new wave music during Spring Weekend. The students were also treated to student concerts and recitals this semester. Some of these students were Scott Anderson, Eric Salmon and Shirl Gower, and Lisa Holovnia, who performed guitar, voice, and violin, respectively. All these students are music majors here at the college and demonstrated their expertise at their art during their performance.

FALL ACTIVITIES

As summer turned into fall, this marked the beginning of school for Y.C.P. students. Along with returning to school, there were a wide variety of activities for the students. Beginning with a lecture by F. Lee Bailey, a criminal attorney, on some of his famous defense cases. The activities of Parents' Weekend began with a reception at Dr. and Mrs. Iosue's house then an afternoon filled with sports and a party at Ramada Inn. The weekend ended with an Ecumenical Breakfast by Father Joe Blascovich.

The annual debate between Hatch's Kublicki's American Civ. classes was on "Reaganomics", Hatch's team was victorious. Other Fall Activities included the Baltimore Inner Harbor Cruise and The Talent Show. The cruise proved to be relaxing in a different atmosphere, while the Talent Show proved that Y.C.P. really does have some very talented students. Of course, there are also those reliable events like: bingo, movies, on and off campus parties, and pub concerts.

ACT II

As the season changed once again, the activities at Y.C.P. continued to keep students busy and entertained. The most attended event this winter was the Winter Formal where Sandy Raderman was crowned queen. At the Natural High Party, students were entertained by the Theatre Company and danced afterwards. Before Christmas Break, Dr. Josue held a party for all the students and served refreshments. After break, Tug McGraw came to the college to speak to the students about "almost anything." Many students will remember being snow-bound by 24 inches of snow and then finding where they left their cars. Troy Hinkle was crowned York's sexiest man on campus at The Annual Sexiest Man on Campus Contest sponsored by The Rec Society and TKE Little Sisters. A Mid-Winter Informal was held by The Black Student Union and The Student Senate. The first Fraternity Feud was sponsored by The Student Senate; Omega Theta Chi emerged victorious. The Fraternity Feud helped students make the transition into "Spring Fever."

ACT III

As the warm weather finally arrived, the normal sight around campus was that of shorts and tee-shirts. While between classes, students could be found worshipping the sun. There were also many activities that helped divert the students attention away from their studies. On April 23-24, Spring Weekend was once again upon us. The theme was Mardi Gras. Bobby Gold was a guest performer on campus, who took "volunteers" from the audience to participate in "Simon Sez." Also that weekend, there was a Battle of the Sexes; the women were victorious. On April 29, the Student Senate again sponsored the Harbor Cruise, around the Inner Harbor of Baltimore. May 6, proved to be a very exciting evening at the Spring Formal for everyone who attended. Karen Robinson was crowned as the Queen. The evening included a dinner at Wisehaven Hall followed by dancing. Along with these activities, the college also sponsored bus trips to shopping malls and sports events. Movies were also shown in the theatre for those students who are unable to get to a theatre. With the closing of another school year, the students headed back to their homes for yet another fun-filled summer.

INTRAFRATERNAL COUNCIL

In the past, the Intrafraternal Council, IFC, has not done its job. In 1982 it came back, but in 1983 it came back even stronger and hopefully will continue to develop. The IFC works with the Administration and Student Senate to coordinate activities for the Greek Student Senate to coordinate activities for the Greek organizations on campus. Led by Bambi Lamplugh (President), John Schleicher (Vice-President), Connie Witmer (Secretary), Joe Pisciotta (Treasurer), the IFC raised money for Greek Week and developed rules to control rushes and pledging. This spring, the IFC held its annual Greek Week with the theme of "Mardi Gras." The events included a drinking contest, road rally, empty keg toss, tug-a-war, and many others. There was a good time to be had by all Greek members. Hopefully, the IFC will continue to grow strong and continue to develop and guide the Greek organizations on campus.

1973 TEN YEARS OF SERVICE 1983

1983 is the year in which the Omega Theta Chi fraternity celebrates its 10th anniversary at York College. Omega is one of the oldest fraternal organizations on the York College campus, and a member of the YCP Interfraternal Council. Omega is a state charter, non-profit organization and has been recognized locally for community service to the York area.

In their ten year history, Omega has come up with various ways to raise money for charities, the most popular being their annual volleyball marathon. Up till now some of the charities benefited have been: The American Cancer Society, The Kidney Foundation, The Arthritis Foundation, Cerebral Palsy of York, and Multiple Sclerosis.

The brothers of Omega Theta Chi are a close knit family, and have a close relationship with Alpha Theta Chi, who were originally little sisters. The fraternity rushes twice a year and they are usually memorable to everyone. Even though they are active in many ways, Omega does not allow their members' grades to slide, and in the Fall of 1982 The Wenger (Omega) House had the highest grade point average out of all the sorority and fraternity houses on campus. Congratulations and Happy Anniversary

— Omega Theta Chi —
Be Proud!

York's soccer team ended its season with a 9-5-1 record. They were ranked as high as seventh by the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America for four weeks, and in the final rankings held ninth position. The record is the best in the past eight years and the third best in York's soccer history. The season was entirely successful and the predominantly freshman and sophomore team should be strong again next year.

FIELD HOCKEY

 Row 2: Joanne Brackett, Lisa Henry, Jenny Carson, Michelle Slotterback, Tammy Rzepknick, Maria Sciarra

The team was a very competitive group. J.V. pushed Varsity very hard and therefore helped to improve their level of competition. The tie games were frustrating but it can be expected, especially when competition is so close and even. The college can certainly be proud of the 1982 team and its accomplishments.

The highlights of the season were the consistently outstanding performances of their star runners. On the men's team, J. Ron Scifers and Mark Rizzuto were outstanding, but the quality level dropped drastically. It was not uncommon to get both first and second places and still lose a dual meet. On the women's team, Heather Munro stood out individually; she established several new York College and course records. However depth of quality made the women's team much more successful, competitively. Possibly as significant a highlight in 1982 was amazingly consistent improvement in performance throughout the season.

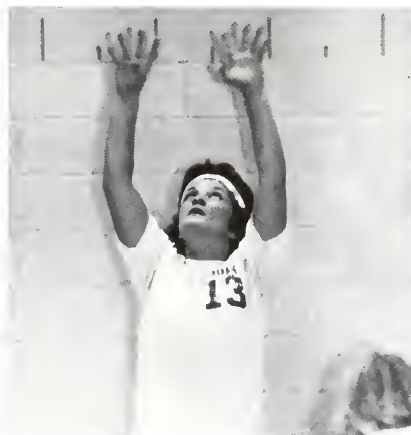

VOLLEYBALL

The 1982-83 volleyball season started out with great prospects for a good year. But the season was not without frustration. Having close matches early in the season, injuries, eligibility problems and a tough travel schedule they got off to a bad start. It even became necessary to add new players and drop the junior varsity program. However, the team did the best they could, considering the circumstances. Both the players and the coaches learned a lot throughout the season.

The wrestling team completed another successful season with a 13-3 dual meet record. Even though this season's record of 13-3 was comparable to last year's record, this was a much better team. The reasons for this improvement were that six starters returned from last season's team which gave them an experienced and matured line up. The team took a lot of pride in the meaning of the team concept, considering wrestling is generally classified as an individual sport.

The swimming team has made great progress this year. Rebuilding of the men's team was necessary as a result of attitudes created in the past few years. The women's team was plagued with injuries and illnesses this year, which accounted for a couple losses which "shouldn't have been." After the problems of the last few years, the team's attitudes and willingness to work have been improved greatly.

CHEER-LEADERS

As usual this year's cheerleading squad helped support York's teams. Their spirit and enthusiasm was greatly appreciated by all the members of the teams.

Clockwise, From Top Right: Sheila Cason, Diane Stofflet, Maria Morris, Donna Pistilli, Diane Haase, Tina Fritz, Sharon Robinson, Jackie Pensyl, Yvonne Hoff.

The basketball team ended their season with a record of 13-12. Numerous injuries contributed to the poor start in the season. The highlight of the season was the team's participation in the Carnation City Classic. York College dominated this tournament, which was hosted by Mount Union College. Regardless of the final record, everyone was very proud of the tremendous comeback the team made in the second half of the season.

The 1982-83 season resulted in a disappointing 4-16 record. Two of the biggest reasons behind the poor showing were injuries and inexperience. They did, however, finish the season with three consecutive wins. The captains for the team were Tammy Bellefeuil, Dodie Forutz, and Cindy Bowman. With most of the team returning, we look forward to an improved season next year.

BASEBALL

The basketball team ended their season with a record of 25-11. The team, though short on collegiate experience, did perform well. Unfortunately, the team suffered with many injuries this season. The season seems to have been a constructive, worthwhile experience for both the players and their more interested followers. We are looking forward to next year's even better season.

GOLF

For the first time ever, the York College golf team was invited to play in the NCAA Division III Championships. The Spartans finished 19th in the nation. During the regular season, the golfers won 8 and lost 2. They had an excellent 396 five-man stroke average. The four-man average was 312.9. In the national tournament, the team score for the four day tournament was 1314. The top golfer of the year was John Lowder, with a 76.0 average. With most of the team returning, it should be strong next season.

The team finished with a 2-5 dual record, placed in the Messiah Invitational and tenth in the Mason Dixon Conference Championship Meet. The team should be commended for their efforts under the adverse conditions experienced this year. Mark Rizzuto finished third at the Messiah Invitational in his first attempt at the .3000 meter steeplechase, in which he placed fourth. The 400 meter relay team consisted of Mark Landis, Steve Liggs, Rick Baublitz and Steve Baublitz set a new team record, and placed fifth in the conference meet for the best finish of a York College relay team since joining the conference four years ago.

INTRAMURALS

The Intramural program, this year directed by Gene Cassidy and assisted by Kim Howe and Mike Ortega, provided students with an escape from classes and activities to release the pressure built up inside them. The sports available to participate in were football, soccer, street hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball. Many students strive for those familiar green t-shirts which label each the "1983 Intramurals Champ" of each particular sport. The Intramurals Office also controls the Game Room in the Student Center. There are some students who spend literally hours a week playing those familiar video games and making use of the ping-pong and pool tables. I am sure that the students who participated in the games are glad that YCP has this program available.

.GRADUATION...GRADUATION

On May 14, 1983, a whole class of students at Y.C.P. completed their role. Graduation Day brought the class of 1983 together for the last time as students. Though many are going to continue on with their education, there are those who feel it is their time to enter into the "working world." The invocation was given by The Reverend C. Floyd Emerson. Dr. Robert V. Josue welcomed the guests, faculty and friends to the commencement exercises and tipped his hat to the graduates. Jason Yamamoto, President of the Class of 1983, greeted the audience and fellow classmates. Mr. Caspar Weinberger (right) gave the commencement address. The Benediction was given by Mr. Joseph J. Degenhart.

Now that the 1983 HORIZON has been completed, I guess it is time to tear down the set, not to forget, but to prepare for the next play, a new script and new actors, as well as old, to prepare to perform. I would like to thank my family and friends; for without them, I would not have been able to make it through this year and complete this book. My extreme thanks to:

The HORIZON STAFF

Susan: my friend and "sister"

Jean: my new found friend and "the voice from the darkroom"

Cheryl: thanks for listening

XGI: who could ever forget the Vet's.

Zeta Delta Chi: We're definitely going to make it and I am proud to be a sister.

Frank, Cathy and Kim: Thanks for the confidence and support. I hope I haven't let you down.

Most of all I would like to thank my Mom, Dad and family for their love and support. I love you all!

I have finished one role here at YCP and I am looking forward to fulfilling the rest. As the saying goes:
